The Nomination Committee shall report to the Board of Directors on any use of funds at least once a year.

3.4 The Chairperson of the Committee shall inform the Board of Directors, at the first meeting convened, on the activities carried out by the Committee. The Committee shall make available in a timely manner any documentation necessary to enable the Board of Directors to make informed decisions on the matters examined by the Committee.

4. ARTICLE 4
CALL OF THE MEETING, CONDUCT AND REPORTING

4.1 The Nomination Committee shall meet, upon call by the Chairperson, whenever he or she deems appropriate, or when requested by at least 2 (two) members, or in accordance with the calendar of meetings of the Nomination Committee established with the Company Secretary, in coordination with the meetings of the Board of Directors and the other Committees of the Company.

4.2 The notice of meeting, containing an indication of the day, time and place of the meeting and the list of topics to be discussed, should be given by the Chairperson or the Secretary to the Committee members upon request of the Chairperson, at least 3 (three) days before the date set for the meeting by e-mail or any other suitable means. In cases of urgency, the deadline may be shorter. Any documents relating to the items on the agenda shall be made available at the same time as the meeting is convened or even subsequently, but in any case sufficiently in advance, except in exceptional cases or for reasons of confidentiality. A copy of the notice should be sent by the Corporate Affairs to the Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors and, in the case as referred to in the following paragraph 4.6 below, also to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors and to the Company's Chief Executive Officer(s).

4.3 Meetings of the Committee may be held in the absence of a formal notice sent in accordance with the above terms and procedures if all its members are present and no one objects to the discussion of the items on the agenda due to inadequate prior information.

4.4 Nomination Committee meetings are chaired by the Chairperson, or in his absence or impediment, by the member chosen by those present at the beginning of the meeting, who shall direct, coordinate and moderate the discussion.

4.5 At the invitation of the Chairperson, the Company Secretary may attend meetings of the Nomination Committee in order to act as secretary of those meetings. Alternatively, the Nomination Committee may - for one or more meetings - appoint a person who is not a member of the Committee to serve as secretary (the "Secretary").

4.6 The Chairperson of the Company and the Chief Executive Officer(s) who are not members of the Nomination Committee may be invited to attend meetings of the Committee, provided that they do not have any personal interest in the matters to be discussed and may not participate in voting at the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee may, from time to time, invite any other person to the meetings of the Nomination Committee, including external third parties, whose attendance may be of assistance to the best performance of the duties of the Nomination Committee, provided that such external third parties respect the utmost confidentiality and privacy with reference both to the matters dealt with and to the performance of the meetings of the Nomination Committee they are invited to attend. Meetings of the Nomination Committee are considered validly held even if the Secretary and the Chairperson are in different places. In this case, the meeting is considered to have been held in the place where the Chairperson is based.
- 4.8 For meetings of the Nomination Committee to be validly constituted, the absolute majority of its members in office is required. Resolutions are passed by an absolute majority of votes; in the event of a tie, the vote of the person chairing the meeting shall be decisive. Votes may not be cast by proxy and each member is entitled to one vote.
- 4.9 The secretary of the Nomination Committee should prepare minutes of the meetings in sufficient detail of the matters considered and decisions reached, including any concerns raised or dissenting views expressed. Draft minutes are submitted to the Chairperson and the other members of the Nomination Committee for comments within a reasonable time after the meeting is held, and minutes are generally approved at the next meeting of the Committee. The Chairperson of the meeting and the Secretary sign the minutes of the meetings which are kept by the Secretary in chronological order. Final versions of minutes of the meetings should be sent to all members of the Committee for their records within a reasonable time after the meeting.
